

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR SELF DIRECTED LEARNING SPONSORSHIP AGREEMENT

The purpose of the ISDSL is the promotion of self-directed lifelong learning and the encouragement and dissemination of continued research on self-directed learning both within and outside of institutional contexts: in childhood education, higher education, adult education, training and human resource development, as well as informal and non-formal contexts. For more information on ISDSL, please visit our website at: www.sdglobal.com

Sponsorships may be formed at any time and remain in effect for a year. Sponsors should formalize or renew their sponsorship annually by completing a new Sponsorship Agreement Form with the information requested below. If you have any questions or have any changes (address, phone, contact person, etc.) please notify our Treasurer, Naomi Boyer via email nboyer@polk.edu or phone 863 298-6854.

Please return this form to Naomi Boyer at nboyer@polk.edu or fax to 863 297-1043.

The International Self-Directed Learning Symposium provides an international forum for the discussion of important current developments in the study and application of self-directed learning. The program design emphasizes presentations of recent research findings, intensive individual participation, and group exploration of problems, issues and concepts. Program structure includes large group sessions as well as small group interaction opportunities.
